R. H. BLAKELY, C. C.

There will be dance at Lake Hall this evening in honor of the Misses Lillah and Frankie Potts and Martha Wier. The young ladies will leave next Thursday night for Tucson, where they will complete a university course.

The mines of Stockton Hill are among the best properties of Mohave county and capitalists should not overlook them in their quest for mines. Some of the claims are rich in gold, silver and lead and the only drawback is the superficial depth at which water is encountered.

Judge M. Rodman departed for California last Wednesday for a short vacation. Mr. Rodman has resided in Mohave county for a dozen years without a lay off of any kind and we are glad to note that his recent mining sale gives him a chance to enjoy a much needed rest.

The Misses Lilly and Annie Dundon, of Cerbat, will leave next Thursday evening in company of the Misses Potts for Tucson, where they will enter the freshman class in the University of Arizona. The young ladies are as bright as a new dollar and will be a credit to Mohave county.

H. J. Delamar has bonded the Maguire mining claim at the mouth of Railroad canyon for 20,0000. The claim is situated on one of the rolling foothills near the Santa Fe Pacific railroad track and is said to carry large quantities of free milling gold ore. The Maguire boys have been running a dry wash machine on the surface of the claim and making good money. It is said that the roadbed, where the ledge crosses the railroad, will average four dollars to the yard in gold.

Gideon Cornell announces his candidacy for the office of treasurer of Mohave county in this issue of the MINER. Mr. Cornell is one of the oldest residents of Mohave county, a sterling citizen, and an honest, capable man. If elected to the office the people may rest assured that the funds of the county will be in safe hands and the books in the office kept in ship shape.

W. H. Eichelberger came up from the Salt Springs country Thursday last and reports that he and Grossman, the printer, with several other gentlemen have located 1200 acres of placer in the Salt Spring wash, near the Senator mill. A pan of dirt from the new strike given from thirty cents to one dollar. One hour's work gave a net result of four dollars and fifty cents in coarse gold. Mr. Eichelberger believes himself and partners have the richest placer camp on the coast.

A. A. Dougherty, the railroad promoter, is again in Kingman. He is of the opinion that the road will be built from Hancock north through the Sacramento Valley skirting the east side, to the Colorado river. Kingman will be the terminal point, the tracks of the Santa Fe Pacific being used from Hancock. By the use of the Santa Fe track the heavy grade over the Cerbat mountains will be obviated. Mr. Dougherty believes that work will be commenced on the road within three months.

The democratic primary convention is being held in Kingman, but not a ripple is apparent on the surface, although three sets of candidates are being voted for. One ticket contains the names of Dave Kelleher, By. Sherman, John Lynch, Chas. E. Bowers, Jos. Gideon, Ira George, Judge J. M. Murphy, A. J. Laswell, Frank Austin, George Hoyt. Another ticket contains the names of John Lynch, Harry Williams, Sam Withers, W. A. Laswell, Wm. Falder, John Phelan, Geo. Hoyt, Chas. Ziemer, F. E. Austin, J. M. Murphy, while another is composed of the following gentlemen: David Kelleher, Sam Withers, By. Sherman, Charles Lynch, Joe Gideon, Ira George, John Phelan, Geo. Hoyt, F. E. Austin, J. M. Murphy.

MEMORIAL.

CASTLE HALL, WESTERN LODGE No. 12, K. of P. Kingman, Ariz., Sept. 6, 1898.

WHEREAS, Our brother, John W. Emerson, has sustained a great and irreparable loss in the death of his beloved wife, which occurred on Aug. 30, 1898, at Los Angeles, California.

AND WHEREAS, Taught by the ceremonies and precepts of our order, as we have been, that home and loved ones should be the first and principal care of all true men and Knights, and that no earthly possession can be more precious than a happy home, and bound together as we are in the bonds of brotherly love and friendship, the grief and sorrow that comes to any one of our members can but be shared by all.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That we hereby extend to brother J. W. Emerson and to the bereaved family, our heartfelt sympathy and that while we share his grief and realize that nothing we can say can serve to make lighter the heavy loss he has sustained, yet do we feel that soon the time shall come to each of us, when, released from this earth life, we shall be united with those who have gone before and share with them the blessings of life eternal.

SUMMONS.

In the District Court of the Fourth Judicial District of the Territory of Arizona, in and for the county of Mohave.

Lotta Martin, Plaintiff, vs. C. C. Martin, Defendant. Summons No. 293.

Action brought in the District Court of the Fourth Judicial District, in and for the County of Mohave, Territory of Arizona:

THE TERRITORY OF ARIZONA SENDS greetings to C. C. Martin: You are hereby summoned and required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff in the District Court of the Fourth Judicial District, in and for the County of Mohave, in the Territory of Arizona, and answer the complaint filed with the Clerk of this Court at Kingman, in said county (a copy of which complaint accompanies this summons), within ten days (exclusive of day of service) after the service upon you of this summons, if served in this county, but if served out of the county and within this district, then within twenty days; where personal service of a copy of the Summons and Complaint is made out of the Territory, or service by publication is made as provided by law, within twenty days after the completion thereof; in all other cases thirty days.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the Complaint as above required, the plaintiff will take judgment by default against you. The object and prayer of which said complaint is to obtain a divorce from you, on the ground of willful desertion, and for the further reason that you have neglected to provide plaintiff with the common necessities of life for a period of more than one year last past, and that there was no good cause for your desertion. And costs and disbursements in this behalf expended.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at Kingman, this 9th day of September, 1898.
